What	This Conflict of Interest Policy (“the Policy”) outlines the principles and procedures for identifying, avoiding, and managing conflicts of interest that may arise between an Affected Person and Exxaro Resources Limited (“Exxaro” or “the Group”).
Why	This Policy establishes a clear framework for managing conflicts of interest. Conflicts of interest can compromise objectivity, undermine trust, and weaken the integrity of decision-making within Exxaro. This policy promotes transparency and ethical conduct by providing clear guidance on identifying, avoiding, disclosing, and managing conflicts of interest, thereby protecting the integrity of decisions and the interests of the Group and its stakeholders.
Who	Applicable to: Exxaro directors, prescribed officers, employees, consultants, contractors, and suppliers (“Affected Persons”) Owned by: Group Company Secretary (Company Secretarial, Governance and Ethics department)
How	Guiding Principle 1: Good Faith and Integrity Affected Persons are expected to act in good faith and with integrity when performing duties with or on behalf of Exxaro; they should exercise honesty and sound judgment. Guiding Principle 2: Avoidance and Disclosure Affected Persons must avoid conflicts of interest wherever reasonably possible and promptly disclose any actual, potential, or perceived conflicts that cannot be avoided. Employees are responsible for identifying, declaring, and managing conflicts in line with organisational policies and ethical standards, enabling Exxaro to assess risks and apply appropriate controls. Guiding Principle 3: Fairness and Objectivity Decisions must be guided by impartiality, fairness, and objectivity. Avoiding undue influence or bias is essential to maintaining trust and reinforcing a commitment to ethical conduct.

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Exxaro is committed to ethical and responsible leadership and to the achievement of effective control, transparency, and accountability in line with the principles of the King Reports on Corporate Governance for South Africa, as well as with the various stock exchange listing requirements, where Exxaro is listed. All Affected Persons are expected to exercise sound judgement, integrity and fairness, and avoid situations that may give rise to conflicts of interest.
- 1.2 Exxaro’s success is built not only on innovation and impact, but also on a foundation of values and a commitment to ethical conduct. We believe that how we behave is fundamental to achieving excellence. Our actions influence the value we deliver to stakeholders, as well as our ability to meet regulatory and international obligations.
- 1.3 Exxaro recognises that conflicts of interest pose a significant risk to ethical conduct, sound governance, and organisational integrity. We also note that there is a strong link between conflicts of interest and fraud and corruption. While not every conflict of interest results in unethical behaviour, all forms of corruption contain an element of conflict of interest – because corruption involves the misuse of entrusted power for personal gain. When conflicts of interest are not properly identified, disclosed, and managed, they create conditions in which corruption can occur.
- 1.4 When Affected Persons encounter situations where conflicts of interest arise, these situations must be addressed responsibly, transparently, and in line with this Policy and Exxaro’s ethical standards and governance requirements.

OUR CORE VALUES:

All Exxaro Employees are expected uphold Exxaro’s values and lead with integrity and ethical conviction:

- Empowered to grow and contribute: Enabling every individual to make a meaningful impact
- Committed to excellence: Delivering high-quality work through continuous improvement
- Teamwork: Fostering collaboration and collective success
- Honest responsibility: Acting with integrity and always doing the right thing

2. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVE

This Policy aims to:

- a) Ensure fairness, transparency and consistency in dealing with conflicts of interest between Affected Persons and Exxaro;
- b) Provide guidance on what constitutes an actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest, and set out Exxaro’s approach to identifying, disclosing, and managing such conflicts;
- c) Define the obligation of avoidance, and where this is not possible, the requirement for disclosure, prior approval, and mitigation of any conflicts of interest;
- d) Ensure compliance with the specific requirements imposed on Directors and Prescribed Officers regarding disclosure of Personal Financial Interests as required by the Companies Act;
- e) Provide principles to our third-party contractors, vendors and consultants when dealing with conflict of interests as prescribed in the Supplier Code of Conduct;
- f) Provide Affected Persons with guiding principles on specific matters pertaining to conflicts of interests;
- g) Allow individuals, where appropriate and authorised, to acquire and maintain personal interests external to Exxaro, provided that these interests do not:
 - i) interfere with or have the potential to interfere or prejudice the interests of Exxaro, directly or indirectly,
 - ii) interfere with their duties to Exxaro, or
 - iii) improperly influence their judgement or decision making when acting on behalf of or in relation to Exxaro.

3. WHO DOES THIS POLICY APPLY TO?

3.1 This Policy applies to the following “Affected Persons”:

- a) all employees of the Exxaro Resources Limited Group, including permanent, temporary, fixed-term and part-time employees, interns and secondees;
- b) all executive and non-executive directors;
- c) prescribed officers and members of board or management committees;
- d) suppliers, contractors, consultants, agents and other third parties acting for or on behalf of Exxaro. In this case, the term “person” includes juristic persons or entities.

3.2 This Policy must be read in conjunction with Exxaro’s Anti-bribery and Corruption policy, Gifts and Benefits policy, and Supplier Code of Conduct.

3.3 Consider the definitions captured in Key Terms used in this Policy.

4. APPLICABLE LEGISLATION AND INDUSTRY STANDARDS

4.1 This Policy seeks to comply with or take guidance from all relevant legislation, regulations, and/or similar industry standards, which may be applicable from time to time, including but not limited to:

a) Legislation:

- i) Companies Act 71 of 2008, as amended.
- ii) JSE Listing Requirements; and

b) Industry standards:

- i) King Report on Governance for South Africa; and
- ii) International Organisation for Standardization, ISO 37009 'Conflict of interest in organisations.

4.2 Exxaro is committed to staying up to date with changes in legislation and industry standards to ensure ongoing compliance. This Policy will be reviewed and updated as necessary to reflect any changes.

5. WHAT IS EXXARO'S COMMITMENT?

Exxaro is committed to:

- a) the highest ethical standards and acknowledges that conflicts of interests (whether actual, potential or perceived conflicts of interests) could harm the interests of the Group, damage Exxaro's reputation or lead to legal action;
- b) a zero-tolerance approach to any unethical or illegal conduct and is committed to ensuring that conflicts of interest are identified, disclosed, and managed appropriately and ethically.

6. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT 4 OF 2013 ("POPIA")

6.1 Exxaro is cognisant of the confidential and sensitive nature of Personal Information including but not limited to information that may be required as part of the disclosure obligations under this Policy. The disclosed information should not be distributed wider than needed to manage the conflicts of interest process set out in this policy.

6.2 Exxaro shall endeavour to ensure that such Personal Information is kept safe at all material times and shall not use, disclose or divulge, directly or indirectly, such information in any manner to any third party not engaged in the conflicts of interest management process for any reason or purpose whatsoever without the prior written consent of the Employee, which consent may be granted or withheld in the sole and absolute discretion of the Employee.

6.3 Despite what is stated in this, an Employee wilfully and freely consents to Exxaro maintaining and storing their information whether in written or electronic format.

7. ETHICAL COMMITMENT

- 7.1 Affected Persons must apply themselves in good faith and objectively when performing duties with or on behalf of Exxaro and ensure that conflicting interests do not impact on this good faith and objectivity.
- 7.2 Conflicts of interest, and the appearance of conflicts of interest must be avoided.
- 7.3 Where conflicts, or their appearance, cannot be avoided they must be proactively disclosed and managed responsibly.

8. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

8.1 Obligation to avoid conflicts of interests

Affected Persons must actively avoid conflicts of interests, whether actual, potential or perceived. This duty to avoid any and all conflicts is not discharged by merely declaring or disclosing an outside interest. Individuals must take proactive steps to prevent conflicts from arising.

8.2 Prohibition of conflicts of interests

Affected Persons are strictly prohibited—whether directly or indirectly, including through any Juristic Person under their control—from supplying goods or services to Exxaro. This is a significant conflict of interest and cannot be managed, thus, neither these individuals nor any entities they control may be registered or retained on the Exxaro vendor list.

8.3 Conflict of interest occurrence

8.3.1 A conflict of interests occurs when there arises a conflict between Exxaro’s interests and the direct or indirect (in fact or an appearance of) private interests of Affected Persons and (or their Related Parties). Private interests include, but are not limited to, a financial interest, economic interest, ownership interest, or a relationship with a third party.

8.3.2 Without being exhaustive, and only as an example, an outside interest will be regarded as an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interests if it:

- a) Impairs, could impair, or may be perceived to impair an Affected Person’s ability to act objectively or ethically when fulfilling their duties for Exxaro; or
- b) Leads, could lead, or may be perceived to lead to the misuse of position, Exxaro information, corporate time, materials, or facilities for personal gain or for the benefit of Related Parties.

8.4 Actual, potential and perceived conflicts of interests

8.4.1 Actual conflicts arise when the private, financial, personal, or professional interests of Affected Persons compromise—or have compromised—their objectivity, judgment, integrity, or ability to fulfil their responsibilities to Exxaro, and their actions have or could have negatively impacted the Group.

8.4.2 Potential conflicts arise when the private, financial, personal, or professional interests of Affected Persons could compromise their objectivity, judgment, integrity, or ability to fulfil their responsibilities to Exxaro, and their actions could negatively impact the Group.

8.4.3 Perceived conflicts arise when the private, financial, personal, or professional interests of Affected Persons could reasonably be seen by others as creating a conflict of interest, regardless of whether an actual or potential conflict exists.

8.5 Review and prior approval

8.5.1 From the Effective Date of this Policy, Exxaro Employees must obtain written approval before engaging in any outside interest, whether or not such interests are or may conflict with Exxaro's business or operations.

8.5.2 Exxaro line managers, executive heads, and the Ethics Committee are 'Approvers', responsible to consider Employees' and Prescribed Officers' disclosures of outside interests and to determine whether they constitute an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest with the interests of Exxaro. This process is described in the Process and Guideline document.

8.5.3 Should an Approver fail to identify an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest that has been declared or fails to impose appropriate conditions or safeguards when granting approval, the Approver may be found to be in breach of this Policy and their duties to Exxaro. Such breach may result in consequence management being implemented against the Approver as well as the Employee making the declaration.

8.5.4 Approvers are therefore urged to consult with an individual on the same or higher level of authority from a different department prior to reaching a decision in respect of a declaration or may seek guidance from the Ethics Officer or Group Company Secretary on the interpretation and application of this Policy, which guidance should be confirmed in writing.

8.6 Identification of conflicts of interests

8.6.1 Good business practice requires that Affected Persons make fair, transparent, and objective decisions. Such decisions can only be made if the Affected Person is not unduly influenced by a personal benefit or by a benefit for a related party.

8.6.2 In addition to the general duty to disclose all interests (whether or not a conflict exists), Affected Persons must actively identify any situation or circumstance that could constitute an actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest between their own or their Related Parties' interests and those of Exxaro.

8.6.3 To identify actual, potential, or perceived conflicts of interest, Affected Persons should use common sense and reasonable foresight and ask:

- a) Do my personal and private interests (or that of a Related Party) impact on my ability to act objectively and in the best interests of Exxaro?
- b) Can I act independently, impartially and professionally in the discharge of my duties?
- c) Could my actions be perceived as benefiting myself or another party over Exxaro?
- d) Does it go against any of the outright prohibitions set out in this Policy?

8.6.4 When a conflict is identified, the following principles apply:

- a) Avoidance and Disclosure: Where a conflict can be avoided, it should still be disclosed to demonstrate transparency and confirm that it was appropriately managed.
- b) Prohibited Conflicts: Where a conflict is expressly prohibited, the individual must not proceed with the activity. However, they should still disclose the existence of the conflict and explain the steps taken to comply with this policy.

8.6.5 Furthermore, Affected Persons must not:

- a) exploit any corporate opportunity for personal gain;
- b) act for any collateral or improper purpose;
- c) use their position or the Group's information or property to benefit themselves or related parties at Exxaro's expense; or
- d) participate in any transaction where their interests may conflict with Exxaro's interests unless fully disclosed and approved in accordance with this Policy and applicable law.

9. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

9.1 Secondary employment or moonlighting

9.1.1 Employees must declare any secondary employment or outside activity for which they receive money, compensation, or any other item of value, whether provided to the general public or to a third party. Such disclosure must be made as part of the annual general declaration process and updated as and when circumstances change. Secondary employment includes, but is not limited to, employment with another employer, self-employment, the private practice of any profession, occupation or trade, consulting or advisory services, being involved in a family business.

9.1.2 It should also be noted that in terms of all Exxaro employment contracts, written permission is required from the Group prior to an Employee accepting or engaging in a secondary employment relationship.

9.1.13 After such declaration, the Ethics Committee, and/or the line manager, as the case may be, may approve such secondary employment (in writing) provided that the following principles are considered:

- a) The nature of the employ may not conflict or compete with the individual's duties and responsibilities at Exxaro;
- b) The nature of the employ may not negatively affect the reputation of Exxaro;
- c) The nature of the employ may not interfere with the working hours of the Employee and all activities relating to the secondary employment will be conducted outside of Exxaro working hours;
- d) The performance of the Employee will not be unduly affected; and
- e) The Group's infrastructure will not be utilised in the execution of the secondary employment.

9.2 Affected Persons are strictly prohibited from supplying goods or services to Exxaro

9.2.1 Affected Persons are strictly prohibited—whether directly or indirectly, including through any Juristic Person under their control—from supplying goods or services to Exxaro. This is a significant conflict of interest and cannot be managed, thus, neither these individuals nor any entities they control may be registered or retained on the Exxaro vendor list.

9.2.2 Related parties of Affected Persons—except those covered under clause 9.2.3—and Employees in Supply Chain Management, may not provide goods or services to Exxaro.

9.2.3 Related Parties of Employees (CU and below) may provide goods or services to the Group, provided that:

- a) The relationship and interest are fully disclosed, and prior written approval is obtained;
- b) The Employee has no involvement, directly or indirectly, in the procurement, evaluation,

- negotiation, approval, or management of the transaction; and
- c) The arrangement does not create an unmanageable conflict of interest.

9.2.4 Exxaro representatives involved in appointing vendors, consultants, or third-party representatives must perform appropriate due diligence to identify any potential conflicts of interest. Where conflicts are identified, suitable measures must be implemented to manage and mitigate associated risks.

9.2.5 Where a current contract exists where such goods or services are provided, which may include rental of properties to Exxaro, these contracts may continue for the period stipulated in the contract or 12 months, whichever comes first and may not be renewed.

9.2.6 Former Employees or Directors will be allowed to do business with Exxaro after a two-year cooling off period.

9.2.7 Employees will be required to confirm the accuracy and completeness of their conflict of interest declarations on a quarterly basis through a system-generated prompt. This process enables ongoing monitoring, particularly where Employees have been promoted or where roles and responsibilities have changed.

9.3 Employees may not sell products or services, using Exxaro infrastructure

Employees may not sell goods or services using the Group’s infrastructure. This includes but is not limited to e-mail or telephone services or Exxaro offices.

9.4 Directors, Prescribed Officers or Employees may not hold a significant interest or position in a competing company

Directors, Prescribed Officer or Employee may not hold a significant interest (5% or more) or position in a company that competes with the products or services offered by the Exxaro, nor be a beneficial owner of such company.

9.5 Recruitment and nepotism

9.5.1 Exxaro does not condone nepotism and recognises that all applicants have the right to apply for vacant positions. Therefore, when family members, friends, romantic or intimate partners, former romantic or intimate partners, or business associates of an Employee apply for vacant positions, the guidelines set out in the People and Performance (PnP) policies and processes must be strictly followed. Direct reporting relationships involving such individuals should be avoided, as they may create conflicts of interest, bias, or undue influence in employment decisions.

9.5.2 Family relationships and intimate personal relationships between supervisors and their direct subordinates are strictly prohibited. This also applies to relationships within the same reporting or supervisory chain, even where no direct reporting line exists.

9.6 Disclosure Principles

9.6.1 Disclosures must be made pro-actively, in other words prior to undertaking any activity, negotiation of an agreement, participation, or deliberation in a meeting.

9.6.2 It is acknowledged that while disclosure alone will often not be sufficient, disclosures must be treated as an integral part of managing conflicts of interests. Every Affected Person must, as soon as they become aware of the possibility of a conflict of interests, communicate and disclose the conflict of interests.

- 9.6.3 Any actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest—including outside interests—must be promptly disclosed in writing to an Employee’s line manager or executive head. Similarly, every Board member and subsidiary director must disclose such conflicts to the Group Company Secretary, and Prescribed Officers must disclose them to the Ethics Office or Ethics Committee.
- 9.6.4 The disclosure of an outside interest should set out the nature and full extent of that interest to enable the Approver to make an informed decision on whether the outside interest is an actual or could be a potential or perceived conflict of interest between that of the Affected Person’s interest and Exxaro’s interests, and whether to approve or reject the disclosure.
- 9.6.5 If a previously disclosed and approved conflict of interest situation continues into the following year, the Affected Person must resubmit that disclosure for reassessment each and every year that the conflict continues.
- 9.6.6 If during the year any facts or circumstances change regarding the disclosed and approved conflict of interest, the Affected Person must resubmit that conflict of interest for reassessment, specifically setting out the details of the changed circumstances.
- 9.6.7 In addition to declaring and obtaining approval for a conflict of interest, the Affected Person is expected to declare this conflict in every instance where it has relevance, and they are expected to refrain from participating in any business activities related to the disclosed conflict of interest.

10. DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS

The disclosure requirements applicable to Affected Persons differs in recognition of their respective roles and levels of accountability.

The following sections outline the distinct disclosure principles governing each group. The disclosure requirements should be read with clauses 7 to 9 above.

Part A: Disclosures for Directors and Prescribed Officers

Part B: Employees

Part C: Independent Contractors and Consultants

3	ERL-CORPSEC-P04	14 April 2026	03 June 2020	Group Company Secretary	ERL Board of Directors	11 of 32

PART A: DISCLOSURES FOR DIRECTORS AND PRESCRIBED OFFICERS

A.1 Companies Act Duties

The Companies Act places specific duties on Directors and Prescribed Officers in relation to the disclosure of Personal Financial Interests. This Policy, therefore, also regulates processes and procedures to implement the duties and obligations that a Director and Prescribed Officer owe to Exxaro under the Companies Act and common law. This Policy should not be construed or applied in a manner contrary to such duties and obligations, nor is it designed to replace such duties and obligations.

A.2 Annual general declaration

Exxaro Directors and Prescribed Officers are required, in terms of section 75(4) of the Companies Act, to submit an annual declaration of all outside interests to the Group Company Secretary. The declaration must include the nature and extent of each interest and indicate whether it relates to a Related Party. Declarations must be completed using the prescribed electronic form and submitted before the end of February each year.

A.3 Disclosure at meetings (including round robin resolutions)

A.3.1 Despite the annual declaration of outside interests, every Exco, Board, and Board committee meeting will include an agenda item for the disclosure of interests. Directors and Prescribed Officers must declare whether they or their Related Parties have a Personal Financial Interest in any matter on the agenda. All disclosures must be formally recorded in the minutes.

A.3.2 Where a conflict is declared, the Director or Prescribed Officer must provide any material information relevant to the matter and may share insights if requested. They must then immediately recuse themselves from the discussion and not participate in deliberations or decision-making regarding that matter.

A.3.3 While recused, the individual is considered present for purposes of establishing a quorum but not for determining whether a resolution has the necessary support to be adopted.

A.3.4 A Director or Prescribed Officer may not execute any document on behalf of the Group in relation to the matter in which they disclosed a Personal Financial Interest, unless specifically authorised to do so by the Board or committee

A.4 Prior Internal Approval Requirement

Where a Director, Prescribed Officer, or any of their Related Parties intends to acquire a Personal Financial Interest in respect of any matter that has been approved by Exxaro, or is the subject of a concluded agreement in which the Group has a material interest, or for which the Director's or Prescribed Officer's approval was required at the time, prior written approval must be obtained from the Group Company Secretary before proceeding with the acquisition.

A.5 Post-Acquisition Disclosure

Following such approval and completing the acquisition, the Director, Prescribed Officer, or Related Party must disclose in writing to the Group Company Secretary the nature and extent of the interest, as well as all Material circumstances relating to the acquisition, as soon as practicably possible, but no later than within two business days.

A.6 On becoming aware

In addition to the above annual declaration, Directors and Prescribed Officers are required to disclose any other arising conflict of interests by way of written notice setting out the nature and extent of the conflict (even if the interest is already contained in their annual general declaration) on becoming aware of such conflict.

- a) to the meeting in the case that the matter is due for discussion;
- b) to the Group Company Secretary in writing in the case of an interest in a matter to be decided by written resolution; or
- c) in writing setting out the salient details within two business days in any other instance to the Group Company Secretary.

A.7 Declarations, Consideration, Approval and Rejection

A.7.1 Declarations of Personal Financial Interests

- a) As required and defined by the Companies Act, declarations of Personal Financial Interests by Directors and Prescribed Officers cannot be “approved”, thereby allowing the Director or Prescribed Officer to participate in deliberations, decision-making and actions related to the disclosed Personal Financial Interest.
- b) See clauses A.1 through A.3 on the requirement to disclose, provide Material information and pertinent insights or observations, recusal from the meeting, and prohibition from executing any document.

A.7.2 Declarations of conflict of interest, other than Personal Financial Interests

- a) For conflicts other than a Personal Financial Interest (as defined in the Companies Act), including actual, potential, or perceived conflicts involving Directors, Prescribed Officers, or their Related Parties, approval may be considered by the relevant authority in accordance with clause 8.5.
- b) Where the potential or perceived conflict of an activity or interest, is viewed to (a) be minimal or immaterial and (b) to pose no risk of damage, including damage to the reputation of the Group, approval may be recorded only if both the aforesaid conditions clause A.7.1 (a) and (b) are met. Any conditions attached to the approval must be noted on the declaration form and regularly reviewed by the approver to ensure that the basis on which approval was granted remains sound and is complied with.
- c) Where an outside interest has been disclosed, and it is agreed that the activity or interest does not or will not negatively impact the Group and could therefore be permitted, such permission will be communicated, and a record of such communication maintained by the approver.
- d) It is the responsibility of the Ethics Office to implement an effective and transparent monitoring and communication system.

A.8 Approval considerations

A.8.1 Committee to consider Director and Prescribed Officer declarations

- a) In respect of Directors, the Exxaro Nominations Committee shall deliberate and decide on the appropriateness of acceptance or rejection of the relevant conflict of interests as submitted by the Group Company Secretary.
- b) In respect of Prescribed Officers and subsidiary Directors, the Ethics Committee shall deliberate and decide on the appropriateness of acceptance or rejection of the relevant disclosure, as submitted by the Ethics Officer.

- c) The decision of the aforementioned committees shall be recorded and communicated in writing to the affected individual, including any conditions, and recorded and communicated by the Group Company Secretary or Ethics Office.
- d) Any conditions attached to the approval must be reviewed bi-annually by the affected individual and the Group Company Secretary to ensure that the basis on which approval was granted remains sound.

A.8.2 Appointments to other Boards not associated with the Group in respect of Directors, as per the provisions of the Board Charter:

- a) A Non-executive Director will be at liberty to accept appointment on other Material governing bodies, provided that such appointment:
 - i) does not give rise to any conflict of interests with Exxaro;
 - ii) does not take up their time to such an extent that they are unable to participate effectively as a Director of Exxaro; and
 - iii) has been noted by the Board in writing.
- b) Exxaro Executive Directors, other than the Exxaro CEO, must obtain the prior written approval from the Exxaro CEO before accepting an appointment to any other governing body, including charities and industry associations
- c) The Exxaro CEO, Directors and the Chairperson of the Exxaro Board must obtain the prior written approval of the Exxaro Nomination Committee before accepting an appointment to another governing body, including charities and industry associations.

A.8.3 Appointments to other Boards not associated with the Group in respect of Prescribed Officers (excluding executive Directors such as CEO and FD)

- a) In relation to new Board appointments (including appointments to non-profit companies or Trusts), the Prescribed Officer must prior to accepting an appointment disclose such appointment to the Exxaro CEO and Ethics Committee, and may, following approval by the Ethics Committee, accept the appointment.
- b) The Ethics Committee must determine on whether the appointment constitutes a conflict of interest. If it does, the Ethics Committee shall inform the Prescribed Officer within 10 (ten) business days and invite them to make representations for consideration on whether they should be allowed to continue with the appointment.
- c) The representations shall be considered, and a decision communicated by the Ethics Officer to the Prescribed Officer.

A.9 External director, membership or trustee fees received

A.9.1 Executive Directors and Prescribed Officers who are nominated and appointed for a directorship, membership, trusteeship of an external company, trust or an external committee, charity, association, or organisation may receive the fees for their personal account.

A.9.2 Executive Directors and Prescribed Officers may not, in their private capacity, serve as a member of more than one (1) external board as a director, member, or trustee of any external juristic person, including governing bodies of charities and industry associations.

A.9.3 Executive Directors and Prescribed Officers may, with prior approval, attend meetings related to approved external board appointments during working hours, provided that such attendance does not interfere with their duties and responsibilities. Executive Directors and Prescribed Officers do not need to apply for formal leave but must obtain line manager approval for time away and make appropriate arrangements to ensure that work responsibilities are not adversely affected. The CEO will receive approval from the FD.

A.10 Rejection

Where, in the reasonable opinion of the Approver, a conflict of interest is adverse to the interests of Exxaro, the Approver has the responsibility to decline approval of the relevant conflict. If the conflict relates to an association or participation in a particular undertaking for which no feasible mitigation measures exist, the Director or Prescribed Officer shall be required to cease such association or participation for the duration of their employment with Exxaro, unless written approval to continue is granted at a later stage.

PART B: DISCLOSURES FOR EMPLOYEES

B.1 Annual general declaration

All Employee disclosures of outside interests (irrespective of whether they constitute a conflict of interest) must be made on an annual basis by completing the prescribed form in electronic format before the end of February each year (or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter). For Related Parties, only interests that create an actual, perceived, or potential conflict of interest must be declared.

B.2 Ongoing declarations

Even if an Employee has previously declared an interest, this interest and any other interests must still be declared by the Employee on an ongoing basis should it become relevant to any matter under consideration.

B.3 Specific Disclosures

B.3.1 An Employee may not realise that a conflict of interest exists until they are already engaged in the activity. In such cases, the Employee must contact the Ethics Office as soon as they become aware that the potential for a conflict exists.

B.3.2 Specific disclosures may be made at any time during the year if there are relevant or material changes to an existing declaration.

B.4 New Employee appointed

New Employees must disclose any actual, potential or perceived conflicts of interests prior to their appointment. This disclosure request will be facilitated by the People and Performance (PnP) division as part of the pre-employment screening. PnP must escalate all disclosures to the Ethics Office.

B.5 Consideration, Approval and Rejection

The line manager, executive head, or Ethics Committee shall consider the following:

- a) All disclosures made by Employees must be reviewed by the designated Approver, being the responsible line manager and/or executive head. The Approver must assess each disclosure in accordance with this Policy and the accompanying process guideline document and either approve the disclosure or reject and escalate to the Ethics Office.
- b) If a disclosure is recommended for approval or the Employee appeals a rejection by the relevant Approver, the Ethics Committee (or a quorate minimum or written resolution if they are unable to meet) will consider the recommendation for approval or review the initial rejection decision.
- c) For appeals of a rejection by the executive head, the Employee must submit their request for a review within 14 (fourteen) days of the decision to the Ethics Office. The Ethics Committee is responsible for reviewing and deciding whether to accept or reject conflicts of interest, with such decisions documented in writing. Decisions may be made on an unconditional or conditional basis, as appropriate.

B.6 Considerations and conditional approval by the Ethics Committee

- B.6.1 Where the potential conflict of an activity or interest is deemed to be minimal or immaterial and there is no risk of damage, including damage to the reputation of the Group, approval of this activity must be recorded by the meeting secretary of the Ethics Committee.
- B.6.2 Any conditions attached to the approval must be noted on the electronic form by the Ethics Officer and reviewed annually to ensure that the basis on which approval was granted remains sound.
- B.6.3 Where an interest has been disclosed, but it is agreed that the activity or interest does not negatively impact Exxaro, such permission must be communicated to the Employee and executive head, and a record of such communication maintained by the Ethics Office.
- B.6.4 Where an activity is viewed by the responsible executive head and Ethics Committee to be inappropriate or has the potential to damage the Group’s reputation, then it should be declined and recorded and communicated as such by the Ethics Officer to the Employee and executive head.

B.7 Rejection

Where, in the reasonable opinion of the Approver, a conflict of interest is adverse to the interests of Exxaro, the Approver has the responsibility to decline approval of the relevant conflict. If the conflict relates to an association or participation in a particular undertaking for which no feasible mitigation measures exist, the Employee shall be required to cease such association or participation for the duration of their employment with Exxaro, unless written approval to continue is granted at a later stage.

B.8 Appeal Decision

If the activity or interest is declined or a conditional approval is granted by the line manager, executive head or the Ethics Committee, Employees have the right to request a second review in the form of an appeal to the Social, Ethics and Responsibility Committee. Such a request must be in writing to the Ethics Office, setting out the reasons for the request including motivating why it should be permitted, or certain conditions be removed, and include copies of all documents relating to the original disclosure of the activity or interest, and the decisions relating thereto. The decision of the Social, Ethics and Responsibility Committee shall be final and binding.

B.9 Internal appointments to Exxaro subsidiary /JV / associate

The appointment of any Employee as a subsidiary director to any Exxaro subsidiary or trust in terms of the Exxaro Delegation of Authority must be reported to the Exco by the Group Company Secretary at the next Exco Committee meeting following such appointment. No fee is payable for such appointments as it is regarded as part of the relevant employee’s duties to their employer.

B.10 External appointments to represent the Group

The nomination of any Employee (including executive Directors, Prescribed Officers and subsidiary directors) as a subsidiary director, member or trustee to any external juristic person, governing body including charities and industry associations, to represent Exxaro on that board must be reported to the Exco by the Group Company Secretary for approval. Any individual so appointed may not receive the directors fee or other fee payable for that position as it is considered part of their duties as an Employee of Exxaro, and any such fee would be payable to Exxaro.

B.11 Appointments external to Exxaro (private capacity)

- B.11.1 Should an Employee (including subsidiary directors and senior managers but excluding executive Directors and Prescribed Officers) wish to be nominated or appointed as a director, member or trustee to any external juristic person, governing body including charities and industry associations, not to represent Exxaro nor as an Exxaro subsidiary director, such Employee requires prior approval from their line manager and in case of a senior manager from the Ethics Committee. Any current appointments not disclosed in the annual declaration form must be disclosed within 10 (ten) business days of this Policy becoming operative.
- B.11.2 The relevant line manager or executive head must determine on whether the appointment constitutes a conflict of interest and whether the Employee would be able to perform their duties to Exxaro while serving as a director. The Employee must provide the nature and reason for the appointment as well as a motivation why it should be accepted. The representations must be considered, and a decision communicated and recorded.
- B.11.3 Should the appointment be approved, the Employee must accordingly update the electronic disclosure form within 10 (ten) days from the appointment becoming effective.
- B.11.4 Employees may not, in their private capacity, serve as a member of more than one (1) external board as a director, member, or trustee of any external juristic person, including governing bodies of charities and industry associations.
- B.11.5 Employees may, with prior approval, attend meetings related to approved external board appointments during working hours, provided that such attendance does not interfere with their duties and responsibilities. Employees do not need to apply for formal leave but must obtain line manager approval for time away and make appropriate arrangements to ensure that work responsibilities are not adversely affected.

B.12 External director, membership or trustee fees received

Employees may receive the fees for a directorship, membership, trusteeship of an external company, trust or an external committee, charity, association, or organisation for their personal account.

PART C: INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS AND CONSULTANTS

The Policy applies to independent contractors, consultants, and any legal entities controlled by, benefiting from, or acting on the instruction of Exxaro. The following provisions apply to service providers who wish to contract with or receive instructions from Exxaro.

C.1 Principle of appointment

- C.1.1 Exxaro requires all consultants, contractors, vendors or professional service providers (such as sponsors, financial advisors, legal practitioners and registered auditors) to avoid and not allow a conflict of interest that may compromise their professional or business judgement or service to the Group generally.
- C.1.2 In addition, contracted consultants, contractors and professional service providers shall be obliged, prior to acceptance of a new appointment or contract to conduct an effective conflict identification process, and to continue with such identification throughout the Exxaro engagement, to ensure no instruction is accepted or contract concluded that could lead to an actual, potential, or perceived conflict with Exxaro.
- C.1.3 Contracted consultants, contractors and professional service providers must declare the following:
- a) Actual Conflict: If, during the course of their appointment, a consultant encounters an actual conflict involving another client, instruction, or contract, they must:
 - i) immediately notify Exxaro in writing;
 - ii) promptly engage with Exxaro to agree on appropriate measures to ensure the Group's interests are not compromised; and
 - iii) if no agreement can be reached on suitable mitigation measures, the conflicting instructions must be referred to alternative consultants, contractors, or professional service providers of the respective clients' choosing.
 - b) Potential Conflict: If a potential conflict arises involving a prospective client or a new instruction or contract from an existing client during the term of their appointment, the consultant must decline the new instruction to avoid compromising their existing obligations.
 - c) Perceived Conflict: In cases where there is a perceived conflict involving a prospective client or new instruction or contract, the consultant must disclose the matter to Exxaro and seek guidance before proceeding, to ensure transparency and maintain trust.

C.2 Codes of Conduct

- C.2.1 The Exxaro Supplier Code of Conduct, available on its website, applies to all vendors, including contractors, consultants, and professional service providers. It sets clear expectations for integrity, transparency, and responsible behaviour in all interactions with our suppliers and business partners.
- C.2.2 Professionals are also bound by their respective industry codes of conduct. For example, legal practitioners must comply with the Code of Conduct for Legal Practitioners (published under Section 36(1) of the Legal Practice Act 28 of 2014), which provides guidance on managing conflicts of interests. Similarly, registered auditors must adhere to the IRBA Code of Professional Conduct, which emphasises objectivity and independence.

C.2.3 To further safeguard auditor independence, Exxaro has adopted a framework governing the provision of non-audit services by its auditors.

C.2.4 Any breach of the Exxaro Supplier Code of Conduct, applicable professional codes, or agreed measures to ensure independence—particularly in the context of non-audit services—may be deemed a material breach and could result in termination of the relevant contract or instruction.

C.3 Holding Statement

C.3.1 Upon breach by any company contracted or appointed vendor, including contractors, consultants and professional service providers, of the provisions dealing with conflicts of interests and codes of conduct in clauses C.1 and C.2 above, Exxaro may in addition to the breach of contract also issue a holding statement against such vendor to prevent any new instructions or service agreement to be concluded until such time that the holding statement has been lifted.

C.3.2 The authority to issue a holding statement and lifting thereof rests with the Ethics Committee.

C.4 Acceptance of obligations

C.4.1 As the relationship between Exxaro and a vendor is not an employment relationship but purely contractual in nature, it is a requirement that at the time of contracting with the Group or acceptance of any new instruction from Exxaro, the obligations and undertakings set out in this Policy (as well as any update to this Policy) should be incorporated into the contract or instruction.

C.4.2 It will be the responsibility of the relevant Exxaro function (for example supply chain management, legal, audit and assurance, etc) that concludes the contract, makes the appointment or gives the instruction to ensure that these obligations and undertakings are captured and accepted in all service contracts with, appointments of or new instructions to contractors, consultants and professional service providers.

C.4.3 Should any contractor, consultant and professional service provider not wish to accept the obligations and undertakings in clauses C.1 and C.2, the amended proposal that is acceptable to the vendor should be submitted to the Ethics Committee for consideration. Should the changes not be acceptable then the appointment, instruction or contract with the relevant vendor may not proceed.

C.5 Policy updates

Any update of this Policy, following Board approval, must be communicated in writing without delay to all contractors, consultants and professional service providers, by the relevant Exxaro function as described in clause C.4.

11. ADMINISTRATION

11.1 Record Keeping

- 11.1.1 All forms submitted electronically are kept for safekeeping within the conflicts of interests database, for record keeping and audit purposes for a period of seven years.
- 11.1.2 Any original forms completed or written notices by Directors and Prescribed Officers will be retained for a period of three years by the Group Company Secretary.

11.2 Annual declaration

The Group Company Secretary or Ethics Officer shall, unless otherwise agreed by the Ethics Committee, in January of each year formally request declarations to be made by February of the same year and prepare a report containing a summary of all past disclosures by Directors, Prescribed Officers and Employees having been approved and conditionally approved or declined, as well as those requiring approval, for submission to the Ethics Committee or Social, Ethics and Responsibility Committee, as applicable.

11.3 Auditing and assurance

- 11.3.1 Auditing of and assurance of the process and internal controls will be conducted in accordance with the risk based internal audit plan.
- 11.3.2 The internal auditors will be granted viewing access to the conflicts of interests database to enable spot checks at any time.

12. ROLES, RESPONSIBILITIES AND DELEGATIONS

The roles and responsibilities under this policy are as follows:

Role	Responsibilities
Chief Ethics Officer	The Chief Ethics Officer is responsible for monitoring, managing, and advising on all conflict-related matters to ensure ethical conduct and compliance across the organisation.
Ethics Committee	The Ethics Committee is responsible for deliberating and adjudicating complex or escalated conflict of interest cases, ensuring fair, consistent, and objective decision making in line with the policy and ethical standards of the organisation
CEO	Executive Directors and Prescribed Officers, other than the CEO, must obtain prior written approval from the CEO before accepting an appointment to any other governing body including charities and industry associations
Group Company Secretary	The Group Company Secretary is the custodian of the Policy responsible for the creation, implementation, maintenance, and review of the Policy. The Group Company Secretary ensures that conflict of interest matters are appropriately recorded, reported to the relevant governance structures, and aligned with corporate governance requirements and regulatory obligations.

Line-managers “Approvers”	Line managers are responsible for identifying, addressing, and escalating potential conflicts of interest within their teams, ensuring compliance with the policy and promoting ethical conduct at all levels.
Nominations Committee	Responsible to deliberate and decide on the appropriateness of acceptance or rejection of the relevant conflict of interest of Directors of Exxaro and proposed appointments to another governing body, including charities and industry associations.
Social and Ethics Responsibility Committee	Responsible to deliberate and decide on the appropriateness of the rejection of the relevant conflict of interest for appeals. It is the final arbiter for appeals.
Supply Chain Management	Supply Chain Management is responsible to ensure that contractors, suppliers, and vendors adhere to the Conflicts of Interest Policy and that it aligns with the Supply Code of Conduct, fostering transparency and ethical procurement practices.

13. CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE

- 13.1 Non-compliance with this Policy and the procedures described in it may be considered to be misconduct and individuals may be subject to disciplinary action that may lead to dismissal. Additionally, failure by a Director or Prescribed Officer to disclose a Personal Financial Interest as required by section 75 of the Companies Act may result in:
- a) any related transaction or decision of the Board being unenforceable;
 - b) the need for subsequent ratification by an ordinary resolution of shareholders following full disclosure; or
 - c) a court declaring the decision valid in terms of section 75(8); and/or
 - d) personal liability for any loss suffered by Exxaro as a result of the non-disclosure.
- 13.2 If a person knows about or suspects a contravention of this Policy, they must immediately report it to the Ethics Office or Group Company Secretary.
- 13.3 Employees who suspect or become aware of any undisclosed conflicts of interests must report their concerns to their line manager, Head of Internal Audit, Ethics Office or through the independent channels outlined in Exxaro’s Whistleblower Policy.
- 13.4 All reports made via these independent channels will be treated confidentially, and Employees can raise concerns without fear of retaliation or victimisation.
- 13.5 Employees reporting suspected corruption or misconduct in good faith will be protected in accordance with applicable laws, including the Protected Disclosures Act, 2000 and Companies Act.

ANNEXURE B: POLICY REGULATING CORPORATE TRANSACTIONS WITH DIRECTORS, PRESCRIBED OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES (THE “POLICY”)

1. INTRODUCTION

For purposes of this Annexure C, unless the context indicates differently or otherwise stated:

- references to “Conflict of Interest Policy” shall be references to the Conflict of Interest Policy to which this Annexure C is attached;
- words and expressions defined in the Conflict of Interest Policy shall bear the same meaning in this Annexure C; and
- if any inconsistency or conflict arises between the Conflict of Interest Policy and this Policy, this Policy, the provision of this Policy or any instruments or applicable laws and codes which impose a stricter standard shall apply.

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Policy is to regulate Related Corporate Transactions involving Directors, Prescribed Officers and Employees (collectively, the “Participants”), ensuring compliance with the JSE Listings Requirements, the Companies Act, Takeover Regulations and King Report on Corporate Governance, and to manage conflicts, fairness and transparency.

3. SCOPE

- Applies to the Company and all the Participants.
- Covers all corporate transactions between the Company and its Participants, including acquisitions, disposals, joint ventures, leases, licenses, material service/supply agreements, share issues/buy-backs, employee incentive rollovers, loans/guarantees/other financial assistance, restructurings, schemes and management buy-outs (MBOs) etc (collectively, “Related Corporate Transactions”).

4. REGULATORY FRAMEWORK (SUMMARY)

- JSE Listings Requirements: Sections 9 (Classification of transactions) and 10 (Related party transactions), and disclosure/announcement rules.
- Companies Act 71 of 2008: sections 44 (financial assistance for securities), 45 (financial assistance to related parties), 48 (share repurchases), 75 (personal financial interests), 112–115 (fundamental transactions).
- Takeover Regulation Panel (“TRP”) and Takeover Regulations: affected transactions/offers, independent board, independent expert opinion, mandatory offers.
- Financial Markets Act: insider trading and market abuse.
- IFRS (IAS 24): related party definition and disclosures.
- King IV: ethical leadership, conflicts management and fair treatment.

3	ERL-CORPSEC-P04	14 April 2026	03 June 2020	Group Company Secretary	ERL Board of Directors	28 of 32

5. DEFINITIONS (ABRIDGED)

- “Financial Assistance” bears the meaning ascribed thereto in sections 44 and 45 of the Companies Act.
- “Independent Board” board committee comprising only independent non-executive directors, constituted for related party/affected transactions.
- “Independent Expert” means a suitably qualified external adviser providing a fairness opinion.
- “Participants” bears the meaning ascribed thereto in paragraph C.2 above.
- “Related Corporate Transactions” bears the meaning ascribed thereto in paragraph C.2 above.
- “Related Party” as defined in the JSE Listings Requirements and IAS 24, including directors, prescribed officers, key management, material shareholders and their associates.

6. GUIDING PRINCIPLE

The Participants must always:

- act in the best interests of the Company and fairness to all shareholders;
- make full, timely disclosure of conflicts and recusal from decisions in line with the Company’s Conflict of Interest Policy; and
- ensure strict compliance with the Companies Act and JSE requirements, including early engagement with the Sponsor, TRP and JSE where applicable.

The Company must always:

- ensure that the Related Corporate Transaction is concluded on arm’s length terms (unless specifically approved otherwise by the Independent Board), and that there is no preferential treatment;
- provide equal information access for bidders no misuse of inside information; and
- ensure a robust, competitive and well-documented process.

7. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

- Undisclosed self-dealing or conflicts.
- Use or disclosure of inside information for personal gain.
- Side agreements, rebates or special terms not disclosed to the Company or shareholders.
- Influence by conflicted persons over valuation, process design or counterparty selection.
- Entering binding arrangements with insiders prior to completing approvals required by this policy and law.

8. IDENTIFICATION AND DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICTS

- All Participants must disclose any personal financial interest or related party connection in writing to the relevant line manager, Executive Head, Ethics Office or Ethics Committee (as the case may be) immediately upon awareness and annually via the conflicts register.
- Section 75 Companies Act applies: conflicted individuals must disclose and fully recuse from deliberations and decisions.

3	ERL-CORPSEC-P04	14 April 2026	03 June 2020	Group Company Secretary	ERL Board of Directors	29 of 32

- The Group Company Secretary maintains a Related Party register and ensures disclosures to the Board, the Ethics Committee, the Social, Ethics and Responsibility Committee or Sponsor, as applicable.

9. CLASSIFICATION, APPROVALS AND THRESHOLDS

- Before engaging, the FD, Group Legal and the Sponsor must classify the transaction under Sections 9 and 10 of the JSE Listings Requirements and determine if Takeover Regulations apply.
- Approvals follow the strictest applicable regime among:
 - Board approval (including independent board where required);
 - Shareholder approval and circular (including exclusion of related party votes where applicable);
 - Independent expert fairness opinion (related party transactions/affected transactions);
 - TRP compliance (independent board, opinion, rulings/approvals); and
 - SENS announcements and, where required, pre-issue / post-completion announcements.
- Percentage ratio calculations (per JSE) are to be prepared by Finance, reviewed by the Sponsor, and retained on file.
- For financial assistance (sections 44/45 of the Companies Act): Board resolution, solvency and liquidity test, terms fairness, and prior or contemporaneous shareholder special resolution (valid for two years) are mandatory.

10. GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

- Independent Board: constituted for related party/affected transactions (including MBOs). It appoints its own independent legal and financial advisers and leads the process, negotiations and recommendation.
- Main Board: retains ultimate responsibility; conflicted directors do not participate.
- Audit Committee: reviews valuation methodologies, fairness opinions and process integrity.
- Remuneration Committee: oversees any rollover, retention or incentive arrangements linked to the transaction.
- Sponsor: advises on JSE compliance, classification, announcements and circulars.
